Play Hammock

Physical: coordination & sense of balance

Social-Emotional: pushing friends gently back & forth, turn taking

Cognitive: cause & effect understanding

MOMENTS™ HERCULES is more than just fun for school age children. The many challenges turn it into an adventure. Children of this age require different stimuli. The classic post and-platform structures promote a wide range of activities, including climbing, balancing, sliding and gathering. It's made for all children and the variety of ground level activities make it a highly inclusive structure.
